

HOOK MACHINE OPERATOR (Denver, CO)

POSITION PURPOSE:

Under direct supervision, operates up to four hook machines and monitors the output of each machine to produce fish hooks that meet pre-determined quality and production standards.

REQUIREMENTS:

- Must have good visual acuity to be able to check details of fish hooks for quality.
- Must possess the manual dexterity to use tools and make adjustments to equipment.
- Must be able to read, write and understand basic math in order to fill out production records.
- Must be willing to work any shift.
- Equipment used: wrenches, sockets and drivers, screwdrivers, hammers, micrometers, calipers, microscope, cutting tools, milling tools, point sharpening cutters, eyeing pins, and other hand tools and measuring equipment.
- Must be able to function in a noisy environment and tolerate exposure to oil, grease, chemicals, dust and heat up to 100 degrees.
- Must be able to stand and walk for periods of up to twelve hours.
- Must be able to reach from floor level to a height of six feet in order to check equipment and make adjustments.
- Must be able to lift up to 15 lbs. frequently, and up to 75 lbs. occasionally.
- Must be able to observe the operation of equipment from a height of five feet in order to detect malfunctions.

HAZARDOUS WASTE MANAGEMENT: May be responsible for managing hazardous waste at the point of generation in accordance with generator waste accumulation requirements. Responsible for following procedures in the Wright & McGill Preparedness, Prevention, and Contingency plan.

We also offer the opportunity to participate in an excellent benefit package, which includes, medical, dental, life insurance, long term disability, profit sharing and a 401K plan with a match. Our wages are very competitive in the Denver, Colorado job market.